

We are deeply worried that we might loose K-Love in our area if it is displaced by a LPFM broadcaster providing other programs. K-Love is a Radio station all of our family listens too. I never worry about what my children are listening to when K-Love is on. It provides a vital service to people all over the world with uplifting music and words of encouragement to get us through the day. Please do not replace it with LPFM.